

Eamon Colman

Born in Dublin in 1957, Eamon Colman is a former President of the European Council of Artists and a recently elected member of Aosdána. He has exhibited widely in Ireland and abroad including shows in the Hillsboro Gallery, Dublin; Rubicon Gallery, Dublin; Tulfarris Gallery, Wicklow; Droichead Arts Centre, Drogheda; Vanguard Gallery, Cork; Oriel Queens Hall Gallery, Wales; the Palais des Congres, Lorient and in FredericksHAVEN, Denmark.

He has received numerous awards and commissions and his work forms part of collections of many organisations including AIB Bank, Brussels; KPMG, Dublin; Vermont Studio Centre and the Royal Victoria Hospital, Belfast. He now lives and works in Co. Kilkenny.

STONE ROAD PRESS

Eamon Colman

Summit Prayer Flags, 2004
Carborundum, 25 x 25cm
Edition of 75

Soul of the Yellow Moth, 2004
Carborundum, 25 x 25cm
Edition of 75

River Run Past Tumbledown, 2004
Carborundum, 25 x 25cm
Edition of 75

...

This set of 3 carborundum prints derive their inspiration from the colour and light of the Aurora Borealis, otherwise known as the Northern Lights.

The celestial phenomenon of bands, curtains and coloured lights appear in the sky predominantly in the Arctic and the Antarctic.

STONEY ROAD PRESS

Eamon Colman
Summit Prayer Flags, 2004
Carborundum, 25 x 25cm
Edition of 75

STONE ROAD PRESS

Eamon Colman
Soul of the Yellow Moth, 2004
Carborundum, 25 x 25cm
Edition of 75

STONE ROAD PRESS

Eamon Colman
River Run Past Tumbledown, 2004
Carborundum, 25 x 25cm
Edition of 75

